

Preamble to the U.S. Constitution

We the people
all of us; you and me of the United States the 50 states that make up our nation in order to form to make or create a more perfect union a stronger country or nation establish justice to make sure everyone is treated fairly insure domestic tranquility to make sure there is peace and quiet provide for the common defense to get help from others if someone tries to hurt us promote the general welfare to work together for the good of others, not just for ourselves and secure the blessings of liberty to be free to do what we want to do as long as we don't hurt others to ourselves and for you and for me; for us our posterity
for those who haven't even been born yet do ordain and establish do order and set up this Constitution
the laws or set of rules for the United States of America for our country; our nation
